BBS REQUESTS COOPERATION OF LOCAL SHOPPERS

WOMEN ASKED TO MAIL
CARDS, PACKAGES EARLY
THIS YEAR

With their excellent cooperation in the recent overseas early Christmas mailing campaign now a matter of record, the people of Putnam county are being asked by the Post Office to continue their help in easing the strain on Post Office personnel and transportation facilities by mailing domestic cards and packages before December 1st.

Postmaster Albert Dobbs today called attention to the Post Office estimate that there will be a shortage of Christmas mail this year. This does not take into account packages that were mailed before October 15th.

Using last year's experience, Mr. Dobbs said the shortage of help at all post offices face this year will be overcome if the public will make a few simple requests.

People will find it to their advantage, Mr. Dobbs said, "if they cooperate with us on this all-important matter of Christmas mail. If such public assistance is forthcoming, we can promise delivery of packages and Christmas cards by December 25th.

Despite many handicaps, our men and other post office employees last year did a good job. They have pledged themselves to surpass that fine record this Christmas season, but they can't do the impossible. If the flood of Christmas mail is, as most authorities predict, greater than ever before, the post office employees will do every bit of cooperation they can get.

Let's all adopt the slogan, "shop early in November this year."

INDIANA UNIVERSITY HONORS ERNIE PYLE

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 14.—(UP)—Ernie Pyle, the colorful but unassuming American war correspondent, returned today to Indiana University, his alma mater, and received his second honorary degree in a month.

The 44-year-old globe-trotter, who was similarly honored by the University of New Mexico last month, had been conferred upon him by Indiana the honorary degree of doctor of humane letters, amid tributes by admiring students.

Pyle heard himself described as an accurate reporter with a yen to write about common people and ordinary things, "a soldier fighting for the freedom of mankind," "a realist with a keen sense of observation," "unexcelled interpreter of the minds and hearts of men in peace and in war," and "an advocate for the rights of the soldiers in the trenches."

While his father, William C. Pyle, and his "Aunt Mary" Bales, both of whom home town of Dana, Ind., looked on Pyle modestly accepted the degree at a special university convocation.

President Herman B. Wells of Indiana University conferred the degree.

Dearing Gets Prison Penalty

Elbridge Patrick Dearing, charged with second degree burglary in the robbing of the local Railway Express office last week, received a prison sentence of 2 to 5 years upon his plea of guilty in Putnam circuit court before Judge John H. Allee Monday afternoon.

Dearing, who was arrested at his home in Indianapolis Saturday by Sheriff Paul Grimes and state policeman Gaylord Howerton, was returned to jail pending further investigation of his case. Mrs. Dearing was taken into custody by the authorities who are probing her alleged activities in connection with her husband.

Sheriff Grimes said Tuesday that Mrs. Dearing and her 12-year old brother, Eugene Johnson, Sycamore street, were involved in cashing between $1,500 and $2,000 in government checks stolen from mail boxes in Indianapolis by Dearing. The Johnson boy was apprehended at the home of his grandfather, near Mooresville, Monday night.

The sheriff expected U. S. postal authorities to be in Greencastle some time Tuesday or Wednesday on the case.

AMERICAN WARSHIPS BLOCKADE JAP ISLAND

PEARL HARBOR, Nov. 14.—(UP)—American warships blockaded Ngerong island in the southern Palaus today and apparently trapped a small enemy force on the tiny isle, the first recaptured by the Japanese in the Pacific war.

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz announced that approximately 200 Japanese, armed with knee-mortars and machine guns, landed on the island, northwest of American-held Peleliu, Tuesday night during a storm.

A small U. S. Marine patrol stationed on Ngerong was quickly removed in several American LCT's (landing craft infantry), and Nimitz said the evacuation was made without casualties.

The Denge passage, north of Ngerong, through which the Japanese invaders apparently came, was immediately blockaded by two U. S. gunboats and a destroyer.

On Thursday, American surface ships and planes bombarded the island, heavily raking the Japanese positions and sinking an undisclosed number of barges.

The Japanese invaded the island probably in a desperate effort to protect their bases in the northern Palaus, already under daily attack by American planes based on Peleliu and nearby Angaur.

SOVIETS MAKE NEW ADVANCES UPON BUDAPEST

OUTFLANK NAZI STRONGHOLD
AND DRIVE TO 16 MILES OF CAPITAL.

MOSCOW, Nov. 14.—(UP)—The 2nd Ukrainian Army outflanked the enemy stronghold of Jaszbereny today and sent armored forces thrusting to within less than 16 miles east of Budapest in a converging drive on the Hungarian capital, already besieged from the south.

(Berlin reported that Soviet tanks had driven into Jaszbereny, 31 miles east of Budapest, yesterday but the enemy report was not confirmed by the Russian communiqué.)

Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's forces, which swung a 20-mile arc around Jaszbereny, were moving rapidly in the drive from the east and advanced more than 19 miles in 24 hours, despite increasing enemy opposition.

The offensive, the second launched against Budapest by Red Army, was taking a heavy toll of German and Hungarian forces. A communiqué said that 1,200 enemy troops were killed and 1,000 others captured yesterday on the eastern approaches to the capital, with the 20th Hungarian Infantry Division reduced to about 1,000 men.

Malinovsky's thrust from the east was spearheaded by one unit which seized Benye, 16 miles east of Budapest, the western anchor of the arc around Jaszbereny.

The eastern end of the arc was established in Jaszapati, 10 miles east of Jaszbereny, where the Soviet forces cut one of the two main highways between Budapest and Miskolc, the country's seventh city in northeastern Hungary.

(Berlin said other Russian troops which entered Fuzesabony, 30 miles southwest of Miskolc, were menacing the second highway 18 miles above the first road. Cutting of the two highways would leave the Germans and Hungarians in northeastern Hungary only a circuitous route to Budapest.)

In establishing the front around Jaszbereny, a key communications center on the Zagyva river, the Soviets also occupied Jaszmyhalylek, three miles to the southeast; Taploszentmarton, 13 miles to the southwest and three miles from the rail line to Miskolc; and Tapiobicske, 20 miles south of Hatvan.

(The Germans reported that Malinovsky had thrown 100,000 men into that front. They also claimed the Russians, in an attempt to reach Budapest from the rear, had made another crossing of the Danube at Batina, Yugoslavia, 109 miles south of the Hungarian capital.)

(Marshal Tito meantime announced that his Yugoslav partisans had broken into Skopje, on the Athens-Belgrade railroad, and engaged the Germans in fierce street fighting. The town is only 90 miles from the Greek border and one of the few enemy-held points remaining on the rail line, which would give Russia a short supply route from the Mediterranean.)

Students Hear Col. Dave Shoup

Col. David M. Shoup, Marine hero of the battle of Tarawa who has won the nation's highest award for heroism, the Congressional Medal of Honor, returned to his alma mater Monday to tell DePauw University students that theirs is the challenge to stop future wars. Colonel Shoup, a DePauw graduate with distinction in 1925, was introduced by President Clyde E. Wildman in Monday's assembly.

Telling DePauw students that they must do tomorrow's fighting, Colonel Shoup cautioned them that "there must be no errors" and that they must not waste a moment of their time in college.

"It appears to me to be a sad commentary on so-called civilized progress," he said, "that we have not yet reached the stage where it will not be necessary to kill millions of men and women in war. This is a challenge to you. Do something!"

Colonel Shoup characterized the Japanese as being tenacious, tricky, and well-equipped fighters, with absolute obedience to their officers and to their emperor. He told factual stories to indicate what the American forces are up against in fighting the hard Pacific battles.

Awarded the Old Gold Goblet last spring as DePauw's alumnus of the year, Colonel Shoup has received the Navy Cross, the Purple Heart, and the Gold Star in lieu of a second Purple Heart. He will go to Washington this week, where President Roosevelt will present him with the Congressional Medal of Honor.

PAROLED CONVICTS HELD IN SLAYING OF GROCER

MICHIGAN CITY, IND., Nov. 13.—(UP)—Police Chief Joseph Wolf announced today the solution of the robbery-slaying of Harry S. Akchevoun, 48, grocer of Joliet, Ill., Sept. 24, in the home of George Nahas, night club operator, with the arrest of three paroled convicts.

The men were Lloyd Mantell, 26, South Bend; John Francis Hanrahan, 27, Indianapolis; and Robert Brown, 34, Niles, Mich., former resident of Michigan City.

Wolf said that Mantell had made a detailed confession, involving Hanrahan and Brown. Mantell was taken to Indianapolis by state police to help in a search of White river for the gun used in the killing. Mantell said they threw the weapon and part of the robbery loot into the stream near five-mile bridge.

Akchevoun was shot to death when he returned home with Mr. and Mrs. Nahas. The night club operator was wounded in the hand during a fight with three men who had entered his home, bound and gagged his young son, George, Jr., and lay in wait for him.

FIREMEN MAKE RUN

City firemen were called to the Double Decker on south Locust street Monday night to extinguish a small fire in the basement. No estimate of damage was reported.

YANKS PRESS EVER CLOSER TO JAP BASE

THREATEN TO CUT ENEMY
FRONT IN TWO IN ORMOC SECTOR

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Philippines, Nov. 14.—(UP)—American invasion forces threatened to cut the Japanese front in northwest Leyte in two today with a push to within five miles of the key road junction of Libungao, 10 miles north of Ormoc.

(A Japanese communiqué said Japanese planes had sunk an American battleship in an attack on a task force east of Luzon last night. Another Tokyo broadcast, heard by CBS, said American carrier planes bombed Manila, 350 miles north of Leyte, twice yesterday.)

The fall of Libungao, already under American artillery fire, would isolate two enemy divisions delaying the American advance down the main highway from Pinampogan to the north from the main Japanese garrison around the west coast sea and air base of Ormoc in the south.

It also would cut the main link between Ormoc and Palompan, 16 miles to the northwest, an alternative reinforcement and evacuation port on the west coast, though several rough mountain trails between the two towns still would remain in Japanese hands.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur disclosed in his daily communiqué that the Japanese now have committed five of their best divisions—possibly 75,000 troops—to the Leyte front in an attempt to smash the American invasion of the central Philippines.

Two of the divisions, are 26th and 1st, were giving ground slowly in bloody fighting along the Pinampogan-Ormoc road just south of Limor, 10 miles north of Libungao.

Medium tanks spearheaded the American 24th Division's advance along the road, followed by infantry who routed the well-entrenched Japanese from strong roadside defenses with flame throwers and bayonets.

Dismounted elements of the American 1st Cavalry Division, executing an end run around the Japanese flank east of the road, consolidated their positions on Mt. Catabaran and Mt. Cabungangan and pressed on to seize Hill 2,026, eight miles south of Carigara bay and five miles northeast of Libungao.

East of Ormoc, the American 96th Division broke the last organized enemy resistance beyond the central mountain range and pursued the fleeing Japanese remnants westward.

MacArthur reported in his communiqué that the pace of his offensive had dislocated Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita's general preparations for a counter-attack by penetrating his potential assembly areas.

Election Cost County $4,674

The net cost to Putnam county for the November 7th election is $4,674.19, the office of County Auditor Eddie Buis, announced Tuesday morning.

The total cost of the election was $7,146.39. Putnam county, however, will be reimbursed by the State of Indiana in the amount of $2,472.20.

HAD A FINE RED

A DePauw "Dad" who planned to come to Greencastle last week for Dad's Day at DePauw University, had made his reservation at a local hotel, but because he did not come until the wee-small hours of the morning, it was not held until his arrival.

He got here about the time it was discovered the Railway Express Office was robbed. Seeing the light and some officials there, he went there to make inquiry about "breaking into jail," the only place he could find an empty bed. Sheriff Grimes was at the express company office and OKed the idea. He took his customer to the jail where a downy white bed awaited him.

The customer spent the rest of the night there and the early part of the morning, expressing his delight and thanks at being accommodated. Late Saturday, he brought his daughter back to the jail to see his fine accommodations and both got a big kick out of the experience.

Metz Hit In Two-Way Drive

PARIS, Nov. 14.—(UP)—Supreme headquarters reported today that the U. S. 3rd Army had captured the Yser fortress group, four miles south of Metz.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—(UP)—Lt. Gen. George S. Patton's 3rd Army stormed Metz from two sides today, capturing the second of the city's nine main forts in a thrust to within three and a half miles of the outskirts from the south and launching a frontal assault five miles to the west.

Nineteen miles north of Metz front dispatches said, other 3rd Army elements widened and deepened their bridgehead across the Moselle river northeast of Koenigsmacher to within a mile and a half of the German border.

The American 7th Army simultaneously stepped up its attacks along a front stretching 27 miles south from the Chateau Salins area and seized Leintrey, 11 miles east of Lunerville in an advance to within 13 miles southwest of Sarrebourg, gateway to the Saar valley.

United Press War Correspondent Robert Richards, with the 3rd Army, said elements of the 5th Division captured the second of the main forts ringing Metz at Ormy, five miles southeast of Metz, and pressed on another mile and a half into woods east of Fleury.

No details were available yet as to how the fort fell, but it was known to be situated within the city limits of Ormy and was believed to be of the same solid concrete and steel construction as the famous Driant fort and others in the Metz chain, though smaller.

Tirpitz Sunk By Royal Air Force

LONDON, Nov. 14.—(UP)—Britain probably will shift another major portion of her fleet to the Far East to participate in the war against Japan as a direct result of the sinking of Germany's last capital ship, the 45,000-ton Tirpitz, in a Norwegian fjord Sunday.

The destruction of the Tirpitz by a fleet of 29 four-engined RAF Lancasters at least removed the most serious threat of all to allied convoys plying the sea lanes between United States, Britain, and Russia and will free numerous British warships for escort duty for tasks in other waters.

Britain has 15 to 19 battleships ranging in tonnage from 29,150 tons to perhaps 40,000-tons-plus and at least nine aircraft carriers of 14,500 to 25,000 tons in service. Many already have sailed to the Indian Ocean to join Admiral Sir Bruce Fraser's growing Far Eastern fleet, but others had been kept in Atlantic and arctic waters to counter the ever-present menace of the Tirpitz.

The London Daily Mail jubilantly proclaimed that the royal navy now was "free to give its undivided attention to Japan."

The Lancasters administered the coup de grace to the Tirpitz, a $59,000,000 battleship which took five years to build, in Norway's Tromsø fjord 22½ miles north of the arctic circle.

Three direct hits with six-ton earthquake bombs pierced the Tirpitz's decks, internal explosions followed, and she rolled over on her side and slipped to the bottom of the shallow fjord, all in a matter of minutes, the air ministry said.

Subsequent reconnaissance showed 700 feet of the Tirpitz keel exposed in a pool of oil and wreckage. Her outrigger booms designed to protect the hull from torpedo attack also protruded above the water.

Marion Ferrand and David Grimes have returned from a trip to Wisconsin where Mr. Ferrand purchased some fine Holstein cattle.

ADOLF HITLER ILL, DEAD OR INSANE, BELIEF

SWEDEN REPORTS CANCELLATION OF AUDIENCES WITH DIPLOMATS, ASSOCIATES

LONDON, Nov. 14.—(UP)—Swedish reports that Adolf Hitler has cancelled audiences with foreign statesmen and diplomats, as well as with many of his close associates, heightened speculation today that he is insane, ill, or dead.

Official allied circles remained aloof from the growing discussion over Hitler's health and whereabouts, but cautioned against wishful thinking.

Premier Dr. Stephen Tiso of the puppet state of Slovakia was said to have been among those whose appointment to confer with Hitler had been cancelled on short notice.

A London Daily Herald dispatch from Stockholm said Dr. Otto Dietrich, German press chief who customarily gives Hitler a daily report on world events and opinion, repeatedly has been sent away without seeing the Fuehrer.

Hitler's personal photographer, Heinrich Hoffman, has been unable to issue any photographs of Hitler since mid-September, the Herald said.

It added that reliable sources reported Hitler still was alive during the last weeks of October, but causing his immediate entourage great anxiety. Living in an armored train, Hitler became so restless and apprehensive over allied bombing that he rarely spent more than two days in one place. He ordered the train to run into the deepest convenient tunnel each night, the dispatch said.

Observers pointed out that German radio assurances of Hitler's good health yesterday were broadcast only for overseas consumption and expressed surprise that the Germans were devoting so great a propaganda effort to an attempt to prove Hitler well when a single minute speech from the Fuehrer himself would do the job 100 per cent more effectively.

'Fag' Black Markets Flourish In U. S.

(By United Press)

Millions of Americans were scrambling for cigarettes today, upsetting the routine and morale of war plants and business offices, enriching hundreds of black market operators, and increasing an already acute shortage with extensive hoarding, a nation-wide United Press survey showed today.

Everywhere men and women were ready to pay exorbitant prices, stand in line for hours, and resort to all varieties of dodges to assure themselves of a smoke.

Extensive black market operations were reported in New York, Chicago, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Detroit, Atlanta, Connecticut, and Buffalo, N. Y. national and regional Office of Price Administration officials were investigating these exploiters for profit of an unavoidable wartime situation and threatened drastic action.

Dealers everywhere reported unprecedented demands for granulated tobacco and cigarette papers and it was a common sight to see novices trying to "roll their own." Sectional runs on pipes and pipe tobacco, particularly by girls, were revealed. Shortages in these substitutes were threatened.

In government office buildings in Washington, in war plants in Philadelphia, in shops and factories throughout the country, hoarders loaded their pockets with dimes and stood watch over vending machines, to empty them the instant they were restocked.

TO GAIN FREEDOM

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov 13—(UP)—Judge William D. Bain of Marion county criminal court said today that Mrs. Wynona Lualien, 26, ex-wife of William Lualien, 23, confessed slayer, soon would be released from police custody.

Bain indicated that evidence against Mrs. Lualien in connection with the crimes of her husband was insufficient to warrant her retention on a burglary charge, for which she was brought here from Knoxville, Tenn., several weeks ago.

Lualien, who was convicted last April of burglary, recently accused his former wife of the slaying of WAC Cpl. Maoma L. Ridings, 32, Warm Springs, Ga., in an Indianapolis hotel 14 months ago, and later admitted the slaying himself.

He was bound over to a grand jury on a murder charge.

USE NEW APRON DESIGNS AS XMAS GIFT IDEAS

If aprons are on your Christmas gift list to make for friends or family this year, they need not be ordinary aprons. Miss Frieda Stoll, Purdue University extension clothing specialist, suggests that patterns be chosen from the designs recently developed by the U. S. Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics. A whole group of new designs has now been added to the list of those formerly available as pattern counters.

All kinds of aprons are included in the group. There are nine designs in all, each made for special kinds of work. There is the simple, overall type of apron that is good for cleaning; the pinafore, which is easy to make and extremely slim-and-trim-looking. There are small utility aprons with generous pockets. And there is a specially designed men's apron, with a smaller "twin" for ladies. Pockets on these aprons are man-sized and the kind that "won't catch on everything."

New dress designs—a total of nine are also available. These all combine attractiveness and utility. They are easy to make and allow for freedom of movement. There are short-sleeved and long-sleeved models. Some styles are tailored; others are more loosely fitted with attractive ruffled necklines. Patterns for the new aprons are available at retail pattern counters. Each of these special patterns will be identified by the words "Designed by Bureau of Home Economics, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C."

YOUTH LOCKED IN TRUNK 7 DAYS

IMPRISONED FOR A WEEK in the tool compartment of an abandoned house trailer at Long Beach, Cal., 9-year-old David Bourbonnais is shown with his father and mother, Seaman and Mrs. Guy Bourbonnais, after a passerby heard his cries for help and released him. Object of a week-long search instituted by his father, a Tarawa veteran, the boy was locked in the trunk by an unidentified 12-year-old playmate. He got enough oxygen through cracks around the two-foot-square trunk door to keep alive and got a little moisture from rain water seeping through the openings. Though he lost 20 pounds, doctors assured parents he will recover. (International)

Election Probe In Marion Co.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 14—(UP)—Republicans elected a week ago in Indiana began preparation to assume complete control of state administration Jan. 1, while an investigation of reported election irregularities in Marion county continued today.

Governor-elect Ralph F. Gates announced plans for conferences next week, at which newlyelected state officials will discuss administrative policies and plans.

Meanwhile, the first of the new officials chosen by voters last week was scheduled to take office today.

William E. Jenner R., Bedford, who was elected to the short-term U. S. senatorial position vacated on election day by Sen. Samuel D. Jackson, was to be sworn in as junior senator from Indiana in ceremonies in Washington.

Jenner, who defeated Cornelius O'Brien, D., Lawrenceburg, by an official plurality of 81,833 votes, fills the last portion of the term to which the late Sen. Frederick Van Nuys, D., Indianapolis, was elected in 1938. He serves until Jan. 3, when Homer E. Capehart, R., Indianapolis, begins a six-year term to which he was elected Tuesday.

The probe which Harold Buckles, chief investigator of the U. S. senate campaign expenses committee, began yesterday, was broadened when Buckles invited persons with complaints about voting procedure last week to present evidence.

Buckles' invitation was made to "all those feeling that they were discriminated or illegally deprived of their vote."

Federal district attorney B. Howard Caughran said that if evidence warranted such action, material on election irregularity charges would be presented to a federal grand jury in December.

Among the complainants scheduled to talk with Buckles were representatives of the CIO Political Action Committee, who charged publicly that irregularities occurred in the election.

At a meeting last night, the Indianapolis CIO council decided to ask the next session of the Indiana General Assembly to amend the state's election laws, placing upon the shoulders of a non-partisan group the control of voter registration and the election machinery.

Gates said last night that the first of a series of conferences among state officials-elect would be held Monday or Tuesday. The governor-elect takes office after his inauguration Jan. 8, when he becomes the first Republican governor of Indiana since 1922.

HOME FROM OHIO

Bill Osborne, Cloverdale R. 3, has just returned home after a ten day visit with relatives and friends in Middletown and Hamilton Ohio.

The new organization of the American Legion, World War II, has named their Post, the "Gene Osborne" post in honor of Gene, a brother of Bill. He was the first in Butler county and the state of Ohio to make the supreme sacrifice. He was on the unfortunate Arizona at Pearl Harbor.

Another brother Otis, a platoon sergeant in the Marines, age 21, was also present. He has been in the Marines four and one half years. He fought in three major battles in the Aleutians, Guadalcanal and Saipan. He has been wounded twice and has been awarded the Purple Heart. He and Bill enjoyed a grand ten day visit together. The first in twelve years.

Bill and Otis and two sisters were honor guests at a dance given by the Legion at the historical Anthony

Wayne hotel in Hamilton on Saturday night Oct. 28. They also occupied special places in the parade and at the speaking of the impressive christening the following Sunday. The program was broadcast over the radio at 1:30 p. m.

It was not possible for two other brothers, Lieutenant Owen Osborne of Gardner Field, California and Sergeant Ray Osborne of Rantaul, Ill. to be present.

CONGRESS WAS RECONVENED AT NOON TUESDAY

MEMBERS OF 78TH CONGRESS
END THEIR ELECTION
RECESS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14—(UP)—The 78th Congress wound up its election recess today and headed into a final four or five-week session to act on a few major war and postwar measures before giving way to the new 79th Congress in January.

In the absence of urgently pressing business, and with some members not yet returned, both Houses scheduled only perfunctory sessions today to go through the formalities of reconvening and serve notice that Capitol Hill once again is open for business.

Democratic leaders scheduled a conference with President Roosevelt at the White House to plan the final session that will conclude a Congress which since Jan. 3, 1943, has acted on most of the wartime legislative authority and appropriations.

Mr. Roosevelt may enliven the opening day by sending to the Senate the nominations for half a dozen important offices he now has to fill.

They include a three-man surplus war properties disposal board, provided for in legislation which he signed during the recess, and successors for James F. Byrnes as director of the Office of War Mobilization and Reconstruction; James Lawrence Fly as chairman of the Federal Communications Commission; T. A. M. Craven as a member of FCC; William H. Davis on the War Labor Board and Clarence E. Gauss as ambassador to China.

Byrnes is serving only in an interim capacity. Fly has resigned effective Nov. 15. Craven already has quit, and Davis and Gauss have notified the President that they want to be relieved of their posts.

There is little "must" legislation still pending before the retiring Congress. Possibly the major item is the extension of the second war powers act, which expires Dec. 31, definite wartime presidential authority for allocation of priorities and requisitioning of property.

House Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin, Jr., R., Mass., said that Congress would give President Roosevelt "all the power that he needs to fight the war." He said he knew of no plan to oppose extension of the war powers act.

Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg, R., Mich., also hopes that the Congress will "freeze" the Social Security payroll tax at its present level of one per cent on both employers and employees, as it has three times previously. Unless Congress acts, the tax doubles automatically on Jan. 1.

First business on the calendars of both Houses, however, is expected to be legislation authorizing postwar works projects.

Sen. John H. Overton, D., La., said he would ask the Senate to open debate next Monday, Nov. 20, on two bills involving approximately $15,500,000,000 in flood control and rivers and harbors development.

The House, which passed both

ATTACK IN ITALY

ROME, Nov. 14.—(UP)—British troops, under strong allied air support, fanned out from both sides of the Bologna highway west of captured Forlì today, hacking out gains up to two miles against bitter German resistance.

The northern group captured the strongly-defended town of St. Tome, two miles northwest of Forlì, and the southern force crossed the Montone river at a number of places and advanced into the foothills north of the river.

In occupying St. Tome, the British captured 100 German troops and headquarters reported that despite the heavy opposition the British casualties were light.

Braves Nazi Fire

AFTER a number of first aid men had been killed by German fire while attempting to evacuate 44 badly wounded U. S. infantrymen isolated in a snow-swept ravine, Maj. Albert L. Berndt of Fortsmouth, O., above, walked through German shellfire and across a German-held bridge to demand face-to-face that the Nazis hold their fire while ambulances evacuated the wounded. The Germans then acceded to his demands. This photo of Major Berndt was made several years ago when he was an intern at Philadelphia General hospital. (International)

SPORTS

Tigers Host To Miami Saturday

The DePauw University Tigers, with two wins in their two home games this season, will try for a third Saturday when they will be hosts to the Redskins of Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. This will be the second game of the season with DePauw for the undefeated Miami gridmen.

The Miami team has not had a loss in eight games this season, and most of their scores have contained good winning margins. Probably their toughest battle to date has been with the DePauw team, when on October 14 the Tigers held the battling Redskins to a 12-0 victory.

DePauw's 9-to-6 victory over Illinois Wesleyan two weeks ago and their 6-to-0 defeat of Oberlin in last Saturday's homecoming game give Tiger fans something to hope for in next Saturday's encounter. Coach Raymond (Gaumy) Neal has worked new men into the Tiger line and backfield to advantage, as Saturday's game indicated, and it is expected that DePauw will do a good holding job. The DePauw team will also have the best possible spirit as they attempt to avenge their earlier loss to Miami.

Saturday's game will mark the close of DePauw's grid season, with two wins and five losses chalked up thus far for the veteran-starved team.

A GOOD Eyedea FOR EVERY CHILD AND PARENT TO MEMORIZE

Your eyes—your children's eyes—are precious possessions . . . too precious to risk in poor light. Still, many of us are careless, forgetting that eyestrain is constantly trying to wear down delicate eye muscles, nerves and organisms. And every time we let eyestrain take over, we're permitting another step toward possible permanent eye injury.

With the modern, scientifically developed lighting aids at everyone's disposal, there's little excuse for permitting eyestrain to get a foothold. Remember—BETTER LIGHT means BETTER SIGHT! Let's get that EYEDea firmly in mind, and keep it!

TAKE THESE EASY STEPS TOWARD BETTER LIGHTING!

- 1 Do all reading, studying, sewing, or game playing close to a good light source—preferably a modern reading lamp with a white lining.
- 2 Avoid glare, from bare bulbs. Don't sit facing the light. GLARE STRAINS EYES!
- 3 Have your eyes examined regularly. If they are defective, vision can be greatly helped with properly fitted glasses.
- 4 Avoid shadows. Make sure you have good light directly on your book or work. Remember—SHADOWS STRAIN EYES.
